

JOHNSON.

The telephone line here has been extended to East Johnson.

Percival Sinclair visited friends in Hardwick last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Heman Newton passed last Saturday in Morrisville.

Mrs. Warner visited her son Fay in St. Johnsbury Thursday and Friday.

Miss Hattie Kimball is visiting her sister, Mrs. Lewis, in Burlington this week.

Miss Belle Hill has gone to Essex Centre where she is to teach this spring.

Fred Holmes has taken the free delivery route formerly run by Perley Whiting.

Mrs. C. H. Stearns returned from her trip to Boston and New York last Saturday.

Ed Wright and wife have engaged to work for Judge Andrews the coming season.

Abram Nolan visited friends in St. Albans and Fairfax Saturday returning Monday.

S. H. Waters from Winoski was in town on insurance business Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Melville Morse of Hardwick visited her father, Orrin Foster, last week.

Mrs. E. E. Holmes visited at H. H. Cowles' in St. Johnsbury last Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren and daughter Ada visited at Will Warren's at Cady's Falls last week.

Misses Alice and Ella Newcomb visited their sister, Mrs. P. C. Hodgkins, at Hardwick last week.

The Ladies' circle will meet with Mrs. Cynthia Hickey Thursday afternoon at the usual hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Millard Cunningham are receiving congratulations on the birth of a fine baby boy.

John Hayford was called to Worcester, Mass., last Monday by the serious illness of his brother.

Mrs. Fred Dubray attended the funeral of her sister, Miss Hosmer, at Lyndonville last Friday.

Miss Josie Hodgkins started for Weatherfield last Friday, where she is to teach the spring term.

L. W. Fletcher attended the I. O. O. F. Lodge at Hyde Park Friday evening. He reports a good time.

O. B. Landon, who has been visiting his brother in Connecticut for several weeks, has returned home.

Peter Parrin will give a temperance lecture at the East Johnson school-house Friday evening April 26.

Miss A. R. Leslie, our popular milliner, has come from Lowell, Mass., with a fine line of millinery goods.

E. H. Sherwin entertained a large party at his sugar house last Saturday. All report a very sweet time.

Several of the G. A. R. went to Waterville Tuesday to attend the burial of Comrade Henry Thomas.

There will be no service at the M. E. church next Sunday morning owing to the absence of the pastor.

George Partlow from Essex Junction visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Partlow, Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burnham will go to Canada next week where they have taken a farm to carry on for a year.

Geo. Elwood has a new chainless bicycle which he bought of Jay Partlow. George keeps up to date on bicycles.

Rev. E. G. French was called to Wolcott last Friday to attend the funeral of the little son of Rev. Geo. Jenkins.

Rev. R. J. Christie was in Sheldon last Friday and Saturday. On Monday he went to the M. E. conference at Lyndonville.

Miss Flossie Demeritt entertained a number of her friends Saturday evening. Pulling candy was the chief feature of the evening.

Lewis Boyce, wife and daughter Mildred who have been visiting at L. W. Fletcher's, returned to Saranac Inn, N. Y., Monday.

Mrs. Perry of Hardwick is visiting her sister, Mrs. P. C. Stearns. Mrs. Stearns' many friends greatly regret her continued illness.

The friends of Miss Anna Oakes will be pleased to hear that she is improving in health and hopes in a month or two to be able to come home.

The Normal building has been undergoing alterations during vacation. Chapel is made smaller and reading and class rooms combined to make a study room.

Miss Janie Holmes is to teach in No. 17 this spring, Myrtle Cunningham in No. 1, Lois Stebbins in No. 5, Evalyn Campbell in No. 6, and Ethel Campbell in the Waterman district.

Miss Jessie Davis entertained a party of young friends last Saturday afternoon, it being the occasion of her birthday. Maple sugar was served and the guests presented their hostess with a pair of very pretty silver vases.

Geo. Baker is repairing and fitting up his studio for Mrs. Chase, who is coming here about the first of May. Mr. Baker has taken tin-types here more or less for 40 years, but he says now that after the first of May he shall not take any more.

The remains of Phineas Dodge, a former resident of this town, were brought here for burial last Thursday. He was living with his daughter in Rutland at the time of his death. The interment was in the old cemetery on the Plot, where his wife was buried many years ago.

Miss Annie Hosmer, a former graduate from the Normal, and a successful teacher in town afterwards, died at the St. Johnsbury hospital last Wednesday. Miss Hosmer made many friends while here who will sincerely mourn her death and also extend their sympathy to her sister, Mrs. Fred Dubray, with whom she lived while here.

Hon. J. A. Andrews and Rev. S. E. Packard visited S. A. Andrews at Vergennes last Thursday. On returning Friday their train was blocked by a wrecked freight train. Mr. Andrews returned to Vergennes but Mr. Packard succeeded in getting through to Burlington that night and home the next day. The judge and parson both found, as some others have, that it is easier to get in to a reformatory institution than out of it.

STOWE.

Stanley Adams is working in Montpelier.

F. O. Burt was in Putnamville Thursday.

G. A. Sanborn was in Burlington Thursday.

Bert Buzzell of Burlington is visiting his parents.

Jesse Kellogg was a visitor in Montpelier Thursday.

F. D. Fish of Brattleboro was in town Thursday.

George Sallies is spending a few days in Montpelier.

R. V. O. L. Barnard is attending conference this week.

Dr. Styles of St. Johnsbury was at C. P. Scribners last week.

Charlie Hunt of White River Junction was in town Tuesday.

Fred Perry of Burlington was in town a portion of last week.

C. L. McMahon and son Donald were in Waterbury Tuesday.

Phil Kniser has entered the employ of Jay Warren at Morrisville.

Mrs. E. M. Smith and Frank Smith were in Montpelier Wednesday.

F. L. Wells is on a business trip through Massachusetts this week.

Dan Luce, manager of the town farm, was on the sick list last week.

Harry Pike was at home from Montpelier Seminary over Sunday.

Miss Nettie Brush of Montpelier was the guest of her parents Sunday.

Henry Nelson and Charles Hopkins were at home from Moretown Sunday.

Vernon Wilkins is improving his Main street residence by a fresh coat of paint.

Mrs. Charles Douglas and children of Sixton's River are visiting relatives in town.

Mrs. B. P. Gates of the New England conservatory of music, was in town a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Edison went to Barre last Monday morning, having employment there for the summer.

A. C. Luce saw a big buck deer at a distance of about ten rods while going through his pasture last Friday.

Mrs. Persis Clough and Miss Belle Anderson of Waterbury were guests of Mrs. C. D. Bruce the first of the week.

Charles Cutler has moved into the Stockwell house and John Latouch into the Benson house vacated by Cutler.

Fred Billings and children were called to Montpelier last week by the death and burial of Mrs. Billings' mother.

L. W. Buzzell announce that he will give another oldtime dance and box party at town hall Wednesday evening May 1.

A new side track is being put in leading to Burt's mill, a move called for by the large increase in their lumber business.

The M. E. Ladies' Aid will meet with Mrs. G. A. Sanborn Wednesday, April 24, with a social in the evening. A cordial invitation extended to all.

Dan Tarbell, fireman at the Mt. Mansfield power station, had one of his hands badly burned Thursday evening by a short circuit on the switchboard.

Rev. Geo. Burnham has sold his place opposite Pike & Benson's store to J. A. Luce, and Mr. Luce has sold his house adjoining Pike & Benson's to Frank Cooley.

Rev. Frank Gale, who was to have spoken at Williamstown Sunday in exchange with Rev. Alvin Smith, was taken ill on the way and compelled to cancel the engagement.

Burt Shaw has closed his barber shop in the depot block, having recently purchased a restaurant and cigar store in Dover, N. H. Burt was accompanied to Dover by A. B. Thompson.

Dr. C. M. Bugbee and Miss Nellie Munn were married at Waterbury Wednesday morning, Rev. Father Maillet performing the ceremony. Dr. and Mrs. Bugbee are very popular young people in Stowe and have the best wishes of their many friends.

A couple of team loads of young people, bound for a surprise party at Will Smith's on Luce Hill, collided in front of Derby's furniture store Saturday night. One of the buggies was considerably shaken up, but the occupants escaped without serious injury.

The board of school directors has secured the following list of teachers for the spring term:—Forks, Dora Tate; Branch, Bertha Isham; Moscow, Jessie Butler; Mills, Mabel Godfrey; No. Hollow, Josie Herrick; So. Hollow, Rachel Cressett; Pucker St., Jennie Luce; Brownville, Mrs. Lena Brown; Edson Hill and Luce Hill to be supplied.

Will Culver received a very painful injury last Wednesday while working on the planer at Burt Bros. steam mill. A piece of lumber flew back with great force from the planer striking him upon the leg just below the hip. It was at first feared that the leg was broken but this proved not to be the case and Will is getting on as well as could be expected.

WOLCOTT.

S. A. Fife and wife are in Boston. Anna Jenkins is working for Mrs. C. E. Haskell.

A girl baby arrived in the home of O. O. Tillotson April 10.

W. L. Tillotson and wife of Morrisville spent Sunday in town.

Miss Grace Cate has gone to Burlington where she has employment.

Mrs. Nellie Bullard spent Sunday with friends in Lunenburg.

Cornelius Vallean is to teach the spring of school in Pottersville.

Attend the millinery opening, April 27. See Mrs. Wheeler's business.

W. L. Wells moves his family to East Elmore in the near future.

D. A. Maxfield and family are soon to move here from Goff's Falls, N. H.

The two sisters of Mrs. H. I. Randall are here from Rye Lake, her guests.

Mrs. F. E. Wheeler is in Boston buying her spring line of millinery. Fred accompanied her.

Rev. C. D. Pierce went Tuesday to Lyndonville to attend the Vermont Methodist conference.

The many friends of Mrs. P. S. Benjamin will be glad to learn that she is improving in health.

Stanley, the 17 month old son of Rev. and Mrs. Jenkins died last Wednesday of pneumonia. The funeral was held from the home on Friday; Rev. Mr. French of Johnson assisted. Rev. Mr. Taylor of Hyde Park officiated. The sympathy of the community goes out to the family in their affliction.

CADDY'S FALLS.

Henry Brown is having good success selling wall paper.

Miss Bessie Whitecomb is with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Lilley.

Robert Whitecomb of East Barre is visiting friends in this place.

Fred Waterbury is getting good initiation in the insurance business.

The villagers were treated to new sugar at G. H. Terrill's orchard last Saturday.

Frank and Dan Potter are both sick with pneumonia. They are reported better.

School commences the last Monday of this month taught by Miss Cora Woodward.

Mrs. Charles and Mrs. Blanche Miner spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Mike Murphy in Hardwick.

Miss Edith Van Vleet, who has been a guest at C. B. Terrill's for the past two months, has returned to her home in Lacolle, Que.

EDEN MILLS.

Clate George is in Albany at work on the river running logs.

It is a pity some of our young men have no better occupation than they have been in the past week or so.

Harry Taylor came home from Waltham last Wednesday; he has been there the past year. He will stay here through the summer.

We are glad to know one of our townsmen has taken a stand for the stopping of quite so much use of liquor in the places of business and with this might be more to follow suit, for boys of all ages from 8 to 18 can obtain it by simply telling a good story as told them. It has been very plentiful here of late.

BAKERSFIELD.

A. L. Hall is seriously ill.

Eliza Coburn is home from Franklin.

Methodist Conference will be held at Lyndonville this week.

Miss Mabel Buck of Fairfax visited friends here last week.

The promenade given by the Athletic Association at B. A. hall last Friday night was a success.

Harry Perkins and Isaac Doane of the U. V. M., at Burlington, spent Easter vacation at their homes here.

The many friends of Frank Wells of Copperfield, who died of the plague, are glad to hear of the arrival of a son at his home.

Mrs. E. P. Neal is filling the vacancy in the corps of teachers at B. A. Miss Higley will resume her work after the mid-term examinations.

Among those from out of town who attended the promenade are Homer Smith and Arthur of West Berkshire, Guy Bush of Sheldon, and Rhett Gates of Franklin.

NO. WOLCOTT.

Bennie Hoyt was in the place Monday.

Fred Sheldon spent Sunday with his parents.

Charlie Robbins is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Bruce.

The ladies will meet this week with Mrs. Nelson Reed.

Mrs. Charles Robbins has been caring for her daughter.

A young couple boy visited at F. P. Sheldon's Sunday.

Fred Churchill began work Monday for Rev. O. M. Boutwell of Hyde Park.

Miss Elsie Cowles of Craftsbury is to work for Mrs. Bolton on Town Hill.

A new girl arrived at the home of Almon Bruce last Thursday. Mother and child are doing well.

In the absence of the pastor next Sunday there will be a Sunday school at the usual hour followed by a prayer service.

A few of the friends of E. A. Sanborn were invited to H. E. Baldwin Friday evening to eat new sugar with him before starting on his long trip to Seattle, Wash.

E. A. Sanborn, after spending the winter months with relatives and friends here, started for Seattle, Wash., last Saturday, stopping at Burlington and Albany, N. Y., for short visits. He expects to arrive in Seattle the last of this week and will stop there until June 1st, when he will resume his journey to Council City, Alaska. The best wishes of his many friends go with him to the gold fields of Alaska.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. W. L. Demeritt died at her home in Wolcott March 27, after a severe illness of 18 weeks. She was born in the town of Eden in 1847, and in 1864 was joined in marriage to W. L. Demeritt, who served in the last rebellion four years. She was the mother of 12 children of whom eight are still living and were present at her funeral. Rev. O. M. Boutwell conducted the services. Mrs. Demeritt belonged to the M. E. church in North Wolcott 15 years and died in the Christian faith, loved and respected by her family and neighbors.

CARD OF THANKS.—We the undersigned wish to thank those who so kindly assisted us in the sickness death and burial of our wife and mother and also for the flowers and to the singers. May God richly bless them.

WILLIAM DEMERITT AND FAMILY.

A Card.

We, the undersigned, do hereby agree to refund the money on a fifty cent bottle of Greene's warranted Syrup of Tar, if it fails to cure your cough or cold. We also warrant a 25 cent bottle to prove satisfactory or no pay.

L. B. Sherwin, Apt., Hyde Park. Frank Laraway, Waterville. J. V. Stebbins, Waterville. M. Shattuck & Son, Eden. G. B. Foss, Hyde Park. C. C. Fisher, No. Wolcott.

PIKE & BENSON, Stowe

 Double Faced Suiting Gray Black Mixtures $18.50	 Home Spun Gray Brown Navy Black $12.75	 Cheviot Serge Gray Black Navy Red $18.50
 Home Spun Oxford Brown Gray $7.50	 Venetian Cloth Blue Black Gray Brown $12.75	 Fine Broadcloth Gray Black Brown $29.00

Double breasted, tight fitting Jacket, three rows stitching, coat sleeve pointed cuffs, skirt inverted, plait in black, pocket on side, lap seams, ten rows stitching around bottom.

Blouse Jacket lined with surah, L'Aiglon collar, lapels, front and collar trimmed with black and gilt braid; skirt with flare, plaited back and finely stitched.

Double-breasted tight fitting "Eton" style jacket, lined with satin, trimmed with satin and silk braid, L'Aiglon collar and pointed cuffs; skirt finely tailored with, d'uncie and trimmed to match jacket.

Double breasted tight fitting Jacket, lined with best taffeta silk, five rows stitching around and fancy stitching on sides and back; skirt with inverted plait, extra wide flare, stitched to match waist, very severely tailored.

Tight fitting Bolivia style Jacket, surah lined, bishop sleeves; skirt made with inverted plait, wide flare, finely stitched and lined with Italian peraline.

COLUMBIA BICYCLES

For eight seasons we have handled the wheels of the Pope Mfg. Co., and believe them the best wheel made. The Columbias are and Hartford and Vedettes the best at their prices.

THE STANDARD OF THE WORLD

Columbia Chainless	-	-	$75.00
Columbia Chain Wheel	-	-	50.00
Hartford Chain Wheel	-	-	35.00
Vedette Chain Wheel	-	-	25.00

Cushion frames and coaster brakes of all styles supplied. We have a few bargains in shop worn and second hand wheels—$10.00 and upwards. Wheels can be seen at bank or at store of O. L. Woods.

RICH & SARGENT, Morrisville, Vt.

COMING HERE . . .

for base ball supplies? Every reason why you should. We have the best line of Base-ball Goods and Supplies.

Sell them at low figures, too. Just glance over the list of prices below and you will quickly decide that this is the place for your money.

BASE BALLS from 5c to $1.00.

BALL CLUBS from 5c to $1.00.

H. J. DWINELL, MORRISVILLE, VT.

RUBBER?

Our line of Rubber Goods is complete. Call in and buy a pair of Boots or Storm Slippers for yourself, your wife or your child.

You should see our designs in WALL PAPAR, from the cheapest to the best that money can buy.

A fine assortment of Derby and Tourist Hats just unpacked. Try one on, and see what a new hat will do for you.

We have our Spring and Summer samples of Tailor-Made Suits for men. Let us take your measure for one—fit guaranteed.

GENT'S NECKWEAR! New! Up-to-date! You will be cordially received at the "Corner Store" any day of the week.

NOYES & WOOD, Corner Store, Hyde Park, Vt.

SPRING and SUMMER WE CAN SELL

SUITS

Call and see some of the latest patterns.

DON'T GO to the city to get Clothing made, but save time and expense by patronizing your home tailor where you can get

CITY STYLES at COUNTRY PRICES

I have spared no expense in my efforts to reach the highest degree of perfection as to superior quality of work.

Cleaning, Repairing and Pressing neatly and promptly done

G. E. PALMER, THE TAILOR, Woodbury Block, up stairs, MORRISVILLE, VT.

THE RANDALL C. F. RANDALL, Prop., MORRISVILLE, VT.

Electric Lights Steam Heat Bath Rooms Free Conveyance to and from trains Good Livery in Connection

H. WAITE & SON, MORRISVILLE, VT.

You a Bicycle for $20.00 or for more. Just give us the price you wish to pay for a wheel and we will meet you with a good thing.

RAMBLER, PIERCE, IDEAL AND OTHERS.

A few choice trades in second-hand wheels.

Wheel Cleaning, Enameling and Repairing now going on.

E. E. HOLMES & CO., Johnson, Vermont

Estate of Will E. Morrill.

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE. The undersigned, having been appointed by the Honorable Probate Court for the district of Lunenburg, Commissioners, to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of Will E. Morrill, late of Stowe, Vt., in said district deceased, and all claims exhibited in offset thereto, hereby give notice that we will meet for the purpose aforesaid at Post Office, Stowe, Vt., on the 20 day of May and 12th day of October, next, from 1 o'clock p.m. until 4 o'clock p.m., each of said days, and that six months from the 12th day of April, A.D. 1901, is the time limited by said court for said creditors to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

Dated at Stowe, Vt., this 15th day of April, A.D. 1901.

A. H. CHENEY, S. T. FULLER, Commissioners.